HUGH WEBER — PRESIDENT, HBSE

Hugh Weber is the president of HBSE, having been elevated to that leadership role, in September. He previously served as President of the New Jersey Devils and Prudential Center since the organization acquired the franchise and arena in August 2013. Weber will play an integral role in positioning the structure of the organization for its next phase of growth.

One of the sports industry's most innovative executives, Weber had an immediate and invigorating impact on the overall culture of the organization after taking over the role in August 2013. He has led an aggressive evolution of the company's business model by initiating a fan-first approach focused on personal engagement, while creating robust partnerships and new, ground-breaking revenue streams.

Weber has spearheaded the Devils and Prudential Center's "One Jersey" movement across both consumer and B2B operations, resulting in an inspired season campaign for the Devils and pioneering collaboration with New Jersey's top businesses.

Under his leadership, Prudential Center developed the first Flex Membership program in the NHL, giving fans and businesses a customizable platform for purchasing Devils tickets with year-round member benefits; created the first farm-to-fan arena concessions experience, featuring local New Jersey chefs and produce; introduced the first permanent 3D projection system for a U.S. hockey team and arena; and partnered with Ritz-Carlton for staff training in customer service. In 2017, Weber's team brought the largest scoreboard in the National Hockey League to the Prudential Center. Weber also oversaw the creation of Prudential Center's first brand campaign, "Our House Rules," which gained national attention, including the Event & Arena Marketing Conference's 2015 Campaign of the Year award.

Weber is dedicated to hiring the top talent in the industry and providing an environment that encourages professional and personal growth, with a focus on having a long-lasting, positive impact on communities in Newark and around the Garden State. With the guidance of incredible non-profit partners, Prudential Center and Devils employees are at the forefront of creating a better New Jersey.

Weber has a track record of business success that benefits partners, employees and community members. Prior to his role with Prudential Center and the Devils, he was president of the NBA's New Orleans Hornets. During his seven years with the organization, the team achieved record-setting ticket sales and sponsorship figures during a time of unprecedented instability created by Hurricane Katrina. The organization's success extended into the community as the team became a pillar of the region's resurgence.

Weber spearheaded the reorganization of the team's basketball operations and developed creative, interactive programs to procure season ticket holders and build significant, sustainable relationships with local partners and businesses. His efforts directly impacted the team's financial success and helped secure stable, local ownership and a long-term lease with the state.

Weber is a board member of a variety of community, economic development and entrepreneurship organizations, reflecting his priority in investing in the people, businesses and leaders around him. Prudential Center is among the National Hockey League's newest arenas, and at the time of its opening, was the first state-of-the-art, major sports and entertainment facility to open in the New Jersey/New York metropolitan area in more than 25 years.

Kansas City-based HOK Sport+Venue+Entertainment, a renowned leader in sports facility design and construction, served as the project architect. The exterior of the building was designed by Morris Adjmi Architects of New York City, and is based on the rich history of Newark – the nation's third-oldest major city. Newark's El Taller Colaborativo, among the largest and fastest-growing minority-owned architectural firms in the northeastern United States, also collaborated on the project.

Prudential Center has recently celebrated its 10th year and enjoyed a meteoric rise to the top of the sports and entertainment industry. "The Rock" is an industry leader, not only in New Jersey, but worldwide. It has also become one of the hottest venues of its size in the United States to host Hispanic cultural shows.

Part of Newark's Downtown Core District Redevelopment Plan, Prudential Center is bound by Edison Place on the north, Lafayette Street on the south, Mulberry Street on the east, and off Broad Street on the west.

Prudential Center is located just two city blocks from Newark's Penn Station, and is among the most accessible sports venues in the country, serviced by New Jersey Transit's rail and bus lines, PATH, light rail and AMTRAK.

Prudential Center is a multi-purpose venue that holds 16,514 fans for hockey and 18,711 for basketball, serving as the home to Seton Hall University Men's Basketball. Versatile enough to hold any sized event with more loading docks and storage space than its competitors to load in back-to-back events, Prudential Center is capable of hosting concerts, mixed martial arts, boxing, skateboarding, family shows, circuses, conventions, corporate events, ice shows and more.

Over the last several years, Prudential Center has hosted the 2012 NHL Stanley Cup Finals and professional basketball games including the New Jersey Nets and the New York Liberty. Prudential Center also hosted the 2019 MTV VMAs, 2013 NHL Entry Draft, the 2011/2012 NBA Drafts, the 2011 NCAA Men's Basketball East Regionals, 2016-18 Never Forget College Basketball Classic, 2011-2013 Street League Skateboarding Championships, Rolling Stones, Taylor Swift, Bruce Springsteen, Andrea Bocelli, Bruno Mars, Foo Fighters, The Who, Justin Bieber, Pitbull, Cirque du Soleil, Paul McCartney, Shawn Mendes, Michael Buble, Justin Timberlake, X Factor and American Idol auditions and McDonald's Gospelfest. The Rock has also hosted a speech by President Barack Obama and former New Jersey Governor Chris Christie's Inauguration party.

The Devils' practice facility – RWJBarnabas Health Hockey House – is located along Lafayette Street. Prudential Center is one of only four National Hockey League arenas to have a connecting practice rink. It also serves as the home to Brick City Boxing, in addition to youth, high school and adult hockey programs and Hockey In Newark.

Prudential Center features a four-level seating bowl, four sideline suites, and two exclusive club level lounges. There are 74 suites spanning two private concourses, along with two larger party suites.

On Suite Level One, the Bud Light Goal Bar overlooks the arena floor on the north end. It offers premium seating with the luxury one would find in their own home. The 350-seat restaurant on the south end overlooks both the main rink and AmeriHealth Pavilion. The restaurant offers an extensive wine collection unrivaled among North American arenas.

The focal point of the seating bowl is an eight-sided, multi-level, center-hung scoreboard featuring four primary high-definition 16:9 video screens. Two full-color LED rings, and eight additional rectangular screens complete the 65,000-pound, 30-foot tall by 32-foot wide scoreboard. A 940-foot display circles the lower arena bowl, while four additional horizontal displays line the upper level.

Some of Prudential Center's best features are its ultra-wide concourses which allow for ease of movement, and an array of superb food options (including the first gluten-free offerings in an arena). Carefully designed sightlines create spectacular views from every seat while giving visitors an intimate feel for the action.

The fan experience begins outside Prudential Center in Championship Plaza, a brick-paved, fan message-driven courtyard. Championship Plaza features a 22-foot tall, three-ton, metal "Ironman" hockey player statue and live entertainment with a block-party atmosphere during FanFest celebrations.

1994-95 STANLEY CUP CHAMPIONSHIP NOTES

- The Devils' .542 regular-season winning percentage was the lowest for a Stanley Cup Champion since Toronto went 32-27-11 (.536) in 1966-67.
- The club started all of its playoff series on the road; no other champion had accomplished that feat since the 16-team playoff format was introduced in 1979-80. The 1966-67 Maple Leafs were the last team to start all of their playoff series on the road. In 1966-67, just four clubs qualified for the playoffs, and there were just two rounds.
- New Jersey went 10-1 on the road in the playoffs. The 10 wins are an NHL record (since tied).
- The Devils became the sixth NHL club to win a championship in their first Stanley Cup Finals appearance, and the first ever to sweep.

JERSEY DEVIL NAME & LEGEND

After it was announced in May of 1982 that the Colorado Rockies franchise was moving to New Jersey, several state newspapers ran a contest asking readers for their nickname suggestions.

So why Devils? Said Devils' founder, the late Dr. John J. McMullen, at the time, "It's a great nickname because it combines the folklore of South Jersey with the Meadowlands."

For those unfamiliar with the legend, the New Jersey Devil dates back some 250 years. While there are many variations of the story, it most frequently begins with Mrs. Leeds, a farm woman from the Pine Barrens region of South Jersey. Already the mother of 12 children, when Mrs. Leeds found out that the 13th was on the way, she apparently exclaimed in despair, "Let it be a devil!"

In addition to being a busy mother, it should be noted that Mrs. Leeds was rumored to have dabbled in sorcery and many thought her to be a witch. On the night of her delivery in 1735, fierce thunderstorms hit the area and an air of uneasiness surrounded her house. When she finally gave birth, the offspring was a demonic creature that has alternately been reported to have had the features of a bat, snake, kangaroo, as well as a man. In any case, the creature quickly flew out an open window and immediately began cutting a wide swath of havoc and destruction throughout the state.

The legend has been fueled through the years by alleged sightings. The devil has been the object of numerous hunts and other pursuits, none of which have apparently been successful.

NEW JERSEY DEVILS

WHILE AT PRUDENTIAL CENTER

Prudential Center

SPORTS & THE ARTS

Prudential Center includes original abstract, contemporary and figurative paintings created by the renowned artists of Los Angeles, CA-based Sports & the Arts, and have been selected from across the United States and Canada.

The 200-foot wide by 30-foot high free-form mural on the west side of Prudential Center's Grand Concourse was created on site by artist Tom Mosser, and depicts local points of interest, architecture and teams. The mural is titled "Impressionistic Realism," and features artwork that captures the essence of New Jersey's sports and entertainment history.

RWJBARNABAS HEALTH HOCKEY HOUSE AT PRUDENTIAL CENTER

On March 16, 2016 the New Jersey Devils announced Barnabas Health as Official Health Care Partner of the hockey team and sports and entertainment arena. The announcement also included the unveiling of a new name and logo for Prudential Center's practice facility, now called the RWJBarnabas Health Hockey House.

The agreement launched the Devils and Prudential Center's Marquee Partnership program, naming Barnabas Health as a member. The new platform will align the most powerful brands in Jersey committed to unifying and inspiring the lives of the families, neighbors and communities throughout the state.

CHAMPIONSHIP PLAZA

Prudential Center's Championship Plaza is an outdoor area celebrating the rich 34-year history and tradition of the New Jersey Devils. Located across from PNC Bank Tower on Mulberry Street between Edison Place and Market Street in Newark, it has become the gathering place for Devils' fans before and after each game.

The centerpiece of Championship Plaza is an in-ground, 60-foot in diameter Devils' logo. Constructed of granite, the logo is surrounded by pieces of stone commemorating each of the team's three Stanley Cup Championships. A 22-foot tall, 7,000-pound, stainless steel hockey player statue, sculpted by New Jersey native Jon Krawczyk, graces the north end of the plaza on Market Street. Championship Plaza also include bricks recognizing the team's 1987-88 Patrick Division Playoff Championship, five Eastern Conference Championships and nine Atlantic Division titles.

Centered along Mulberry Street is a solid granite, custom-sculpted Prudential Rock. Prudential Financial's well-known brand symbol was inspired by the Rock of Gibraltar, and represents the company's strength, stability and financial security. Prudential has been part of the Newark community since its founding in 1875.

Tendon: Fibrous tissue that connects muscles to bone.

Tibia: Larger of the two bones of the lower leg and is the weight-bearing bone of the shin.

Transcutaneous Electrical Nerve Stimulator (TENS): An electrical modality that sends a mild current through pads at the injury site which stimulates the brain to release the natural analgesic endorphin.

Triceps: Muscle of the posterior upper arm, opposite the biceps, that extends the elbow.

Ulna: One of two bones in the forearm; extends from point of elbow and is found on the outer (little finger) side.

Ulna Nerve: Nerve in the elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing or repeated trauma.

Ultrasound: An electrical modality that transmits a sound wave through an applicator into the skin to the soft tissue in order to heat the local area for relaxing the injured tissue and/or dispersing an edema.

"Wind Knocked Out": Syndrome describing a contraction of the abdominal nerve trunk, the solar plexus, as a result of an abdominal contusion.

ASSIST: An assist is awarded to the player or players (maximum of two) who touched the puck prior to the goal, provided no defender plays or possesses the puck in between.

GAME PLAYED: A player receives credit for playing in a game if: i) he steps on the ice during time played or; ii) serves any penalty.

GAME-WINNING GOAL: After the final score has been determined, the goal which leaves the winning club one goal ahead of its opponent is the game-winning goal (example: if Team A beats Team B 8-3, the player scoring the fourth goal for Team A receives credit for the game-winning goal).

GOAL: A goal is awarded to the last player on the scoring club to touch the puck prior to the puck entering the net.

GOALS-AGAINST AVERAGE: Multiply goals allowed (GA) by 60 and divide by minutes played (MINS).

GOALTENDER: A goaltender receives a "W" for a win in regulation, overtime or shootout; an "L" for a loss in regulation; or an "OT" for a loss in overtime or shootout.

PENALTY-KILLING PERCENTAGE: Subtract total number of power-play goals allowed from total number of shorthanded situations to get total number of power-plays killed. Divide the total number of power-plays killed by the total number of shorthanded situations.

PLUS-MINUS: A player receives a "plus" if he is on the ice when his club scores an even-strength or shorthand goal. He receives a "minus" if he is on the ice for an even-strength or shorthand goal scored by the opposing club. The difference in these numbers is considered the player's plus-minus statistic.

POWER-PLAY GOAL: A goal scored by a club while it has a manpower advantage due to an opponent's penalty. Following are some examples of what is and is not considered a power-play goal:

- if a club has an advantage on a minor penalty starting at 2:02 of the period and it scores at 4:02, the goal is not a power-play goal.
- if a club scores on a delayed penalty, the goal is not a power-play goal.
- if a club has an advantage due to a five-minute major or match penalty, that club is always credited with having one more advantage than the number of power-play goals it scores during that advantage, because the penalty does not expire. A new advantage begins after each power-play goal. For example, if Team A scores three goals during a major penalty, it is credited with four advantages.
- if a club is on a power-play for any length of time, it is considered to have had an advantage.
- if a minor penalty is incurred by a club on a power-play due to a major penalty, a new advantage is given to that club when its minor penalty expires, provided the opponent's major penalty is still in effect.

POWER-PLAY PERCENTAGE: Total number of power-play goals divided by total number of power-play opportunities.

SAVE PERCENTAGE: Subtract goals allowed (GA) from shots against (SA) to determine saves. Then divide saves by shots-against.

SHOOTING PERCENTAGE: Divide the number of goals scored by the number of shots taken.

SHORTHAND GOAL: A goal scored by a club while it is at a manpower disadvantage. The same cases apply for shorthand as for power-play goals, but in the opposite manner.

SHOT ON GOAL: If a player shoots the puck with the intention of scoring and if that shot would have gone in the net had the goaltender not stopped it, the shot is recorded as a "shot on goal."

SHUTOUT: If two goaltenders combine for a shutout, neither receives credit for the shutout. Instead it is recorded as a club shutout.

TENTHS OF A SECOND: If a penalty or goal occurs in the last minute, the time is rounded off to the previous second (ex: if a penalty is called with 12.4 seconds left in a period, the time is indicated as 19:47 and not 19:48.)

COACHES RECORD: A coach receives a "W" for a win in regulation, overtime or shootout; an "L" for a loss in regulation; or an "OT" for a loss in overtime or shootout.

 NOTE: No individual skater/goaltender statistics apply for the shootout.

STANLEY CUP PLAYOFF FORMAT

Playoff qualification will be primarily division-based, with the top three finishers in each division qualifying for the first 12 spots in the Stanley Cup Playoffs (and the first three "seeds" in each division).

The two additional playoff spots in each conference, designated as "Wild Cards," will be awarded to the next two highest-placed finishers in each conference, ranked on the basis of regular-season points and regardless of division.

"Seeding" of the Wild Card teams within each divisional playoff will be determined on the basis of regular-season points. The first-place finisher with the highest number of regular-season points in the conference will be matched against the Wild Card team with the lowest number of regular-season points, and the first-place finisher with the second-highest number of regular-season points in the conference matched against the Wild Card team with the second-lowest number of regular-season points.

The playoffs will proceed as follows:
- #1 vs. #4 / #2 vs. #3 – winners play each other for berth in conference championship.
- Conference finals – two advancing teams in the West and two advancing teams in the East meet in conference championship.
- Eastern and Western Conference Champions will meet in Stanley Cup Finals.

The NHLPA has given its consent to play under this new alignment and playoff system for a minimum of three seasons, through the 2015-16 NHL season.
